

READING SUB-TEST MARK SCHEME PARTS B & C

Sample 2 2019 S2

PART B: QUESTIONS 01-06

1	B	a situation where there is a requirement to override the protocol.
2	B	It is acceptable for them to be placed in the research records.
3	C	assess whether devices are functioning properly.
4	C	any hospital employee regardless of location.
5	B	all staff are competent to move patients out of danger.
6	A	if the collection jar is allowed to overflow.

PART C: QUESTIONS 07-14

7	A	The parallels between people's mental and physical processes.
8	B	widely regarded as examples of psychological illness.
9	A	were guilty of exploiting their patients' own misguided beliefs.
10	D	correctly understood different aspects of the consequences of allergy.
11	B	Allergy sufferers are often in need of someone to share their problems with.
12	D	the involvement he felt with the people who had wanted to talk to him.
13	B	they have a mutually beneficial relationship with their patients.
14	A	an approach to the care of allergy patients.

PART C: QUESTIONS 15-22

15	C	There should be a greater focus at medical school on how to treat it.
16	D	a position statement
17	B	reinforce an earlier argument
18	D	Many lack guidance in key areas relating to professional competence.
19	D	cover the consequences of inadequate interventions.
20	C	understanding of the challenges they face
21	A	little demand for the study of pain amongst students.
22	B	impatience with the rate of improvement in chronic pain management