

READING SUB-TEST MARK SCHEME PARTS B & C

PART B: QUESTIONS 01-06

1	A	the anticipated longevity of the pacemaker battery
2	C	One formulation of Mepivacaine is most suitable for patients with high blood pressure.
3	B	patients fully understand one consequence of having a blood transfusion.
4	B	provides a strong visual cue as to how the AED should be used.
5	A	consult senior colleagues.
6	C	A hip ultrasound may be needed even when a dislocated hip isn't apparent

PART C: QUESTIONS 07-14

7	A	pinpointing the root cause of a patient's TMD
8	B	Botox should be a last resort for chronic TMD pain.
9	B	Botox is a non-standard approach to relieving pain in TMD patients.
10	C	There were positive outcomes in treating several conditions.
11	B	A degree of pressure on the temporo-mandibular joint is normal.
12	A	whether Dr Herring's findings were of relevance to medicine/physicians.
13	D	variable rates of success
14	D	TMD sufferers would be unwise to ignore reservations about Botox.

PART C: QUESTIONS 15-22

15	C	Claims made about it are now beginning to be verified.
16	D	how metabolism is affected by fasting
17	A	cohorts
18	B	Those with reduced access to nourishment became more intelligent.
19	A	fasting for prolonged periods every night.
20	B	suspect that the way they eat is unnatural.
21	B	to justify the writer's reluctance to take sides in a debate.
22	C	stressing the need for some further research into fasting.